9. WARRANTY

Image Processing Techniques Limited warrants to its customers that the Products it sells will be free from defects in materials and workmanship for the periods set forth in the applicable warranty statement, a copy of which can be obtained from Image Processing Techniques Limited. If any such Product proves defective during the warranty period, Image Processing Techniques Limited will repair or replace the defective Product at its option as specified in the applicable statement. Where longer periods are prescribed by law, the warranty period will be extended to the minimum period so prescribed.

Save where the Customer deals as a consumer (as defined in the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1997) this warranty is in lieu of all other warranties, express or implied. Image Processing Techniques Limited disclaims any implied warranties of satisfactory quality, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Image Processing Techniques Limited responsibility to repair or replace a defective product is the sole and exclusive remedy provided to the Customer for breach of this warranty.

10. USE OF RECONDITIONED MATERIAL

Products supplied by Image Processing Techniques Limited may include parts or materials that are not new but which have been reconditioned to a like-new state. The Customer shall not be entitled to reject Products or seek any diminution in the price of the Product on the basis of the inclusion of reconditioned parts or materials within the Products.

Image Processing Techniques Limited shall in its absolute discretion be entitled from time to time to make changes in the design or specification of the Products provided that such changes shall not materially affect the quality or fitness for purpose of the Products.

12. LIMITATION OF REMEDIES AND LIABILITY

Save as may be expressly provided in these Terms and Conditions Image Processing Techniques Limited shall have no liability whatsoever to the Customer for any indirect, special or consequential loss and/or expense (including loss of profit) suffered by the Customer and arising out of a breach or alleged breach of this contract. This Clause does not affect the statutory rights of the Customer in so far as the customer is dealing as a consumer (as defined above).

13. WAIVER

No waiver or forbearance by Image Processing Techniques Limited (whether express or implied) in enforcing any of its rights under this contract shall prejudice its rights to do so in the future.

14. ASSIGNMENT
